HIGH CASCADE COLLAB

Since 1989, HCSC has been a breeding ground for unparalleled progression and unlimited fun. From the wild early days of baggy pants, shifties, and hand dug half pipes, to the current day seamlessly constructed progressive fun factory, HCSC has always been a place to get wild and Stay Loose. High Cascade rests on that very glacial soil that incubated a nourished and young Airblaster that planted its seedlings on the wings of jet planes back to winter land, to spread the wild word. The ties between Airblaster and High Cascade run as deep and wide as the HCSC super pipe in August. Twelve years of partnership and brotherhood deserve a little celebration, and here it is.

Greetings my fellow creeps, I believe you are a creep and so am I. I scroll, you scroll, we all scroll down. In this digital age we all creep on each other. Wether it's online or in the woods, creep'n is a common practice enjoyed by all. Do you ever hear a dark cinematic soundtrack & feel like you are being chased by orcs, goblins & frost trolls in your head on a dark and stormy powder day? I feel that way often. As for tweak'n, I have been a strong supporter for as long as I can remember and will continue to do so until my bones allow me to poke and grab with a vengeance. The kind people at Airblaster dug this sense of humor and skeletal sensibility so much that they asked me to design a few creepy items for them and the rest of the world.

Sincerely yours,
@ROBINBANKZ
